Personal statement

Laakea Kamauoha, Son, Brother, Father, Friend

I hold strongly to Community Economic Development & Empowerment Island Style

Promote and mentor, using a foundation based on Native Hawaiian generational knowledge that ensures a community consultation process focused on the health and welfare of natural and cultural resources in Hawai'i. I am an advocate in preserving our custom, culture and natural food resource, opening up doors to growing our food without restriction or patent rights and working toward fishing and hunting as a viable natural food resource.

A Native Hawaiian, Laakea is a telecommunication specialist that has become a highly respected and leading economic development advocate in Hawaii and among the Hawaiian community. He has served voluntarily as the Waialua Taro Festival 2003 Chairperson, a Hawaii Civic Club District Director, A Native Hawaiian Convention Delegate (Ha Hawaii), Haleiwa Main Street Organization Director, Haleiwa Arts Festival Director, Empower Oahu Director and North Shore Representative, Empower North Shore Oahu Executive Board Vice-president. He has represented the Kamauoha Foundation and the Noni Farm project in many community meetings and forum.
