Personal statement

Running as a delegate for the upcoming Aha is consistent with my life-long commitment to serve Native Hawaiians. I believe that the Na'i Aupuni elections, the convening of the Aha and the ensuing ratification of a governing document by registered Hawaiian Voters is the best opportunity we have for moving Hawaiians closer to self-determination and sovereignty, and to initiate the first critical steps toward nationhood. The forceful overthrow of our Hawaiian Kingdom, the illegal annexation to the United States and the increasing pressures to accommodate and adopt, non-Hawaiian, beliefs and practices has not only destroyed our natural resources and cultural landscapes, but is a constant threat to our enduring spirit of being Hawaiian. We cannot allow these destructive conditions to continue unchallenged, and uncontrolled. I believe Hawaiians must coalesce as a strong collective force to prevent further diminishment of who we are, what we believe, and what our future destiny will be. I want to be among those delegates representing Hawaii island. I believe that sovereignty and nationhood are mana'opaa among Hawaiians and we should holomua like kakou in this process. Imua e na Poki'
