Personal statement

From multi-millionaire to "Punatic," corporate, stay-at-home mom to single mother of five children, my life has been a series of wonderful extremes.

Today, my primary role is one of a teacher. I am currently a single mother who chooses to home-school my youngest, who is a special needs child. My strong network of family and friends allows me this privilege (for which I am grateful.)

My current passion is mediation. I am now enrolled in mediation training classes (half-way through) and love the art.

It is my hope that I can serve the Hawaiian people and Na'i Aupuni; and in preparation, I will learn more 'Olelo Hawai'i before the convention starts next February.
