

JAMES HANCOCK

Date of birth: 7/28/49

Hawaiian ancestry

I am Hawaiian, Chinese and Caucasian. My Hawaiian ancestry comes from a line of Big Island chiefs

Educational background

I have a bachelor of science degree from the University of Houston in 1971. My education is continuing.

Employment history

I am retired. Most of my life I was a self employed carpenter, contractor, and musician. I am presently a volunteer at the Bishop Museum, I give tours centered on Hawaiian culture and history.

Personal statement

Aloha,

My name is Jimbo Hancock. I live in Kailua with my wonderful and smart life-mate Sharon and a cat named June. I paddle with Kalihi Kai canoe club (65) class. I give tours at the Bishop Museum. Kalo is growing in my back yard.

We have an opportunity here, right now, to build something that can give a powerful single voice to the Hawaiian people. It will be hard to do. Our present system is comfortable with things as they are.

I know I can help to make this gathering of Hawaiian people work better. Please give me this chance. I will do the very best I can
