Personal statement

Aloha mai kakou, I humbly come forward at a time of kinaole when we need to raise up as a people to move into a promising future. I ask for the honor of serving all of our Hawaiian people as a delegate in the Native Hawaiian 'Aha.

For far too long we have been fractured and frustrated. We are at a point in our history where the roads lead to very different paths: we unite and move forward, we remain fractured and see more generations lose opportunity and identity. While hostility is understandable, it's not Kapu Aloha. Shutting down voices of those we do not agree with is not how we will reach a meaningful outcome for our keiki and mo'opuna.

Over the decades, many in our families struggled with generational poverty, domestic violence, incarceration and more. Many more of our people are hard working productive contributing members who want to help improve life for our people. I believe my ability to be open minded, constructive; my willingness to put in the hours of hard work; participate in discussion, research and hear people, will serve our community well by acting upon the best opportunity we've had in over a century to make real progress for our Lahui. Me ka ha'aheo
