Personal statement

As a Kanaka 'Ōiwi, I feel that it is my kuleana to preserve the language, culture and traditions of my kūpuna. I have immersed myself into nā mea Hawai'i and 'ōlelo Hawai'i so that I can better understand my identity as a Kanaka 'Ōiwi. I am fortunate to be a beneficiary of many of our ali'i trusts and I have had many opportunities to represent our lāhui in Washington D.C. on a national level. I feel that I have much to contribute to this 'aha and to our lāhui. It will be my generation who will be the next leaders and I want our voices to be heard.
