Personal statement

Aloha all!

This convention will bring together people from various backgrounds representing communities, cultures, and industries. As an advocate for a smart governing structure, I ask for your support in my candidacy for delegate because I bring a deep understanding of how governments around the world are structured and how implementing a solid economic plan will lead to economic self-sufficiency for our people. We now have the opportunity to create a lasting plan for how our people will grow as a society and how we can become prosperous, and therefore we need the right blend of backgrounds in the delegation. I am asking to be voted in to the delegation to ensure that the need for a concrete economic plan giving further legitimacy to the progress of our people will keep the attention that it deserves.

My vision for the outcome of this convention is a plan that will unite communities, industries, and economies.
