Personal statement

Trained in history, traditions, genealogy, and lapaau by Luka Kinolau, Lillian Kahoalii, Alice Namakelua, and Alina Paki Say-Fong from 1955 to 1982. 'Uniki lapa'au" from Papa Henry Auwae at Lapakahi, November 2000. I am a royal genealogist and keeper of ancient records. I am the last designated kahu of record for the Healing Stones in Waikiki. I have represented numerous native Hawaiian cultural interests both culturally and legally over the past 20 years, and have written legislation concerning native Hawaiian cultural practices in re indigenous Hawaiian fundamental constitutional rights. Professional experience: Wall Street mergers & acquisitions; small business locally; financial systems structuring; accounting systems; quantitative analysis; human resources and labor deployments; risk & crisis management. As a professional, I have written legislation in Hawaii and Washington D.C. Without interruption for the past 21 years, I spend at least 10 hours each week serving Hawaiian communities as a lapa'au ministering to kupuna, hospital patients, teaching Hawaiian medicine, and providing family kukakuka and pule.
