Personal statement

My middle name is Lohelani, and I try my best to live by my name whenever I am called up to help resolve a problem in my personal life or as a professional. . I am deeply invested in the unification of all Native Hawaiian people. I feel that united with our family around the world, we can and will accomplish everything that we desire. I want to be a part of the process of determining a shared vision for sovereignty, and hope that my limited life experience can be of use to my people. My experience with admin. laws, legal research & drafting, and negotiation will be skills I can offer
