Personal statement

Welina mai me ke aloha. My name is 'Olu Campbell and I was born and raised in Kaimuki, O'ahu. First, mahalo nui to all those who have braved the tribulations of political battle to bring our community to this mile-stone for self-determination. Through your sacrifice we are able to look toward the future with hope of a better Hawai'i. This 'Aha is a doorway to that future. It will not only provide a forum of aloha for productive conversation, but a support system for focused action. I hope this 'Aha will allow leaders in our community an opportunity to listen to experts in relevant fields, and to the testimony of our experienced community members, to best negotiate the positives and negatives of various forms of self-determination. It is my further hope that this 'Aha will provide a roadmap, outlining the next steps in this political process and identifying topics in which more research is needed to make more informed decisions. The path ahead of us will be no easier than that overcome by our kupuna to place us in this critical moment of Hawaiian history. We will succeed, however, by adhering to the kuleana that we all have to participate in this process in lōkahi and with aloha.

Personal statement

I have always read and listened to my kupuna to learn about my history. Not just to translate past lessons to our modern world, but also to recognize the sacrifices that were made for us so that we can better understand the sacrifices we must make today.

Throughout my life, I have learn as much as I can from my kupuna, and all who came before me, I always remember one thing: we did not inherit this `āina from our forbearers, rather, we borrow it from our grandchildren. This is why it is vital that Hawaiians seize power where we can.

From legalizing fishpond restoration and traditional burials, to mandating native landscaping and Hawaiian rights training for states board members, to protecting Kaho'olawe and our homesteads, I have been working hard to better the lives of our people in my role as a leader in our State. But too many times, I stand alone in votes to protect our `iwi kupuna, rights of cultural practice, and demilitarization.

Whether it's in the form of independence, federal recognition, or something entirely novel, the time for self-determination is now. I seek to be a voice of reason, na'au pono, fairness, and love for our people, and I humbly ask for your vote.

I believe the time has finally arrived for the Kanaka Maoli to take control of our destiny. Our young people have been educated and are beginning to assert themselves in every aspect of our community. The Kupunas are still here to provide strength, wisdom and courage for our future leaders. I would like to contribute my wisdom, knowledge, and experience in the establishment or re-establishment of our Hawaiian Kingdom Nation. I am presently not affiliated with any sovereignty groups or organization.

Personal statement

I strongly believe that the Hawaiian people should be self governed and that we should be looking at a starting point going back to the last constitution that we had as a kingdom and using that as a guide and reference moving forward from the perspective that the Kingdom still exist and that we need to protect what we have (land especially) along with the other items of life (Ocean to mention only two) I also believe that our Kapuna led the way with a constitutional set up with the election of our last King and that we should follow this example for the formation of our government.

I believe that delegates elected to such a position must be passionate about justice. They must be able to see that this process is about undoing the "wrong" that put our people in the state of despair we are in today. The losses our people have suffered are too numerous to identify but a few are loss of land, culture, art, identity, language. Pride, and division etc., Etc. Delegates are the representative voice of ALL the people irregardless if the constituent voted for the delegate or not. All sides of the issue must be looked at, much research needs to be done, civility needs to be incorporated, respect of others' ideas and the best interest of the people needs to be the determining factor. Delegates need to look deep, far and wide and high, to make the decisions that will bring no harm to our people, nor diminish any of our vested rights. Delegates need to be committed to the process which they themselves will determine at the very first gathering. Delegates will need to hear & listen twice as much than speak. The electorate must consider electing someone who is trustworthy, honest, has integrity, real true grit and not easily compromised. Our future depends of us.

Personal statement

With hopes of developing a form of independence that ensures the perpetuation of Hawaiian values of Ohana, Aloha Kekahi I Kekahi and Malama 'Aina. I come to the table with an open mind but a heavy heart. My intentions are pure, unselfish and unwavering.

I support our Kia'i Mauna and the 'Aha Moku System. I support Prince Jonah Kuhio's vision of self-sufficiency and self-determination of native Hawaiians.

I despise the unregulated spraying of harmful pesticides as it affects our ecosystem. I detest the exorbitant cost of living that has caused our people to flee their homeland in pursuit of affordable housing. I disapprove of the selling, leasing or transferring of our lands to outside entities (individual or nation) with no direct benefit to our people.

I promise to listen to anyone with a positive resolution to the obstacles affecting our Lahui. I pledge to pursue the rights and benefits be restored to our people.

Therefore, with the utmost of humility, I ask for the support of all Kanaka Maoli who believe the time has come for us as a Lahui to come together, all differences aside, for the betterment of our people.

Hawaiians have always been a very visionary people. In tune with nature and the world around them, we have been able to thrive and prosper in spite of many trials and tribulations. Through all of that however, we have remained humble and steadfast.

Participating in a process that sets the groundwork for Hawaiian self-governance stands to be the most significant and radical activity Hawaiians have been involved in since the renaissance of the 1970's.

I stand united with my brothers and sisters to ensure that the legacy of our kupuna lives on.

I am Hawaiian subject/Hawaiian National following the legacy of my kupuna kahiko to preserve, and perpetuate our culture through 'olelo (language), cultural practices including mo'olelo (history), healing (i.e., la'au lapa'au, lomilomi and ho'oponopono) and the restoration of our government (Aupuni).

We possess all the natural and human resources needed to effect a paradigm shift to abundance and prosperity as an independent nation. It will take compassion and understanding of the wisdom and values of our kupuna kahiko (I ka wa mamua) as well as a clear vision and dedication to provide selfless leadership for all the people of Hawai'i (I ka wa mamua).

I am compelled by my kupuna to make a selfless commitment to contribute my knowledge, experience and wisdom to join with other leaders to restore our Hawaiian nation as the best path forward for the benefit of our children and grandchildren.
