

Grace Solomon

Hello, shareholders. My name is Grace Solomon and I am an American with a Disability. I am profoundly deaf in both ears. Since childhood, I've worked hard and made personal sacrifices, in order to achieve my dreams and find success in life.

For the past 25 years, I have been a full participating member of the Co-op City community. I've served on many committees, on many occasions and in many capacities, such as, president of the Building 34 Association, Director of Instruction for the NAACP Day Care program, a coach for the Co-op City Little League, a tithing member in good standing with the Co-op City Baptist Church, as well as a life-long member of the Co-op City NAACP and a member of the Coalition to Save Affordable Housing.

As a candidate for the Co-op City Board of Directors, I promise to continue the fine legacy of keeping Co-op City safe and affordable as well as to ensure that the Co-op City community has leaders who are finding solutions to address our everyday needs and current problems. Additionally, to find ways to put money back into the shareholders' pockets. I look forward to the opportunity of working with our current Board of Directors to build on the wealth of this community and then, to sustain that wealth. I believe it's necessary to keep our money in our community.

Shareholders, I have over 35 years of experience and knowledge serving as a New York City Public School teacher, assistant principal, Principal, as well as a School Superintendent. All my life, I've believed in my abilities, I can do this job! Please vote for Grace Solomon, Kevin Lambright, Keith Logan, Darnell Lopez and Bishop Angelo Rosario for Board of Directors. Vote for all members of The UNITY TEAM!
